Support Grant Application

The World Wide Radio Operators Foundation (WWROF) is a US-based, non-profit organization, which provides financial support to individuals and groups who use amateur radio communications to further its mission. Information provided in this application is confidential and will be used only to evaluate the application. Applications must be made by fully completing this form and emailing it to grants@wwrof.org or via mail to WWROF, P.O. Box 529, Fredricksburg, TX 78624-0529. Incomplete applications will not be accepted by WWROF.

Support Guidelines

Before financial support is awarded for a project, the Directors of WWROF review the compatibility of the project with the WWROF mission, the qualifications of the radio operators involved, the technical merits of the project, the licensing issues if relevant, and any other factors to ascertain that the project is well-designed and likely to succeed.

WWROF Mission

The Worldwide Radio Operators Foundation is dedicated to improving the skills of amateur radio operators around the world, utilizing education, competition, advancement of technology and scientific research, promoting international friendship and goodwill, and preparing them to better serve society in times of communication need.
